Smokey and the Brisket BBQ

Vintage cars and motorbikes set the scene for barbecue, brews, and flatbreads at this new gathering spot near the shores of Lake Murray. A 1960s Dodge van has been cut into a custom bar, while retro car upholstery is repurposed as bench seating. It'll make you grateful for the return of in-person dining, but mostly you'll remember the smoked meats from Alberto Morreale, the chef behind Farmer's Table restaurants—especially the eponymous brisket. 5465 Lake Murray Boulevard, La Mesa; smokeyandthebrisketsd.com
